

Exhibit 7.

Summary Forensic Examination of Residential Dwellings that Sustained Extensive Fire Damage in the Accident³⁰²

County Road 621 – Address	Structure Type	General Condition	Summarized Examination Observation(s)
4167	MH	fully consumed by fire (burned to the ground)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▫ substantial ground fire proximate to the structure ▫ found pieces of sheet metal from adjacent buildings
4195	CWF	fully consumed by fire (burned to the ground)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▫ fatality (human remains) had been found inside, proximate to [sleeping] bed ▫ found several small O₂ tanks, electric space heater, LPG hot water heater, kerosene lamp, electric washer and dryer, LPG stove, portable television within rubble
4201	MH	fully consumed by fire (burned to the ground)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▫ found LPG space heater, electric hot water heater within the rubble ▫ propane storage tank with fire damage at rear of the structure ▫ burnt-out automobile found adjacent to the structure
4207	MH	fully consumed by fire (burned to the ground)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▫ fatality (human remains) had been found (outside) proximate to front door. ▫ found LPG stove, electric hot water heater, electric washer and dryer within the rubble ▫ forensic specimen recovered/examined (electrical power feed wire from hot water heater; see § 5.2.2)
4207 shed*	CWF	fully consumed by fire (burned to the ground)	*note - apparent utility shed adjacent to the dwelling (as a part of the property) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▫ found small LPG tank, battery charger, cooker, lawn mower, within the rubble

³⁰² ref. § 5.2.1, as compiled by the Survival Factors Working Group participants

Nomenclature / abbreviations used in this Exhibit:

MH = mobile home / semi-permanently fixed in place
CWF conventional wood frame structure
LPG liquefied petroleum gas

-- End of this Exhibit --